Happy Centennial Saskatchewan

On September 10, 2004, the book Happy Centennial Saskatchewan will be launched at the Hotel Saskatchewan. The author is David Bouchard, a poet, writer, teacher and a champion of literacy. David is the author of over two dozen books, including the award winning If You're Not From the Prairie with sales of this book reaching over 200,000 copies. What David has expressed in words Hans Herold has painted on canvas with fourteen Saskatchewan scenes reproduced in colour in the book. The author and the artist will be in attendance.

We are pleased to have the support of the Leader-Post and the Star-Phoenix as they participate in "Raise-a-Reader", an award winning national campaign that promotes reading to children at an early age. "Raise-a-Reader" will share in proceeds from the sale of the book.

Happy Centennial Saskatchewan will have a tremendous impact in the celebration of Saskatchewan's 100th birthday, as books can be sent as gifts to the thousands of people who have lived in our province and our many friends around the world who have fond memories of the prairies and the "Land of Living Skies".

You are invited to attend a special dinner at the Hotel Saskatchewan with David Bouchard as the guest speaker. He has spoken to hundreds of thousands of people throughout the world, appearing on the same programme with Stephen Lewis, UN Special Envoy for HIV/AIDS in Africa, with noted authors Peter Senge and Alfie Kohn, and Justin Trudeau. He has presented in India as well as in the United States on numerous occasions, and will be a keynote speaker in Houston, Texas this October.

Please use the information enclosed to make your reservations for this exciting Happy Centennial Saskatchewan event.
